

Jeffries Technology Solutions, Inc.
Udvar-Hazy Center

SCAVENGER HUNT ANSWERS

- Pre-1930 plane with a flying wing shape & pontoon landing gears. Burgess-Dunne Ah-7, 1914
- U.S. Army amphibious and land plane named for a city. It took 133 days to fly from San Antonio to Washington, DC. Loening OA-1A San Francisco
- Vietnam workhorse, best known for its nickname (not related to Donald Duck). Bell UH-1 Iroquois, aka Huey
- Who was Maggie and how was she related to our business market? Pegasus XL Rocket; Maggie was the daughter of Orbital's co-founder & chairman
- Designed by a schoolteacher, this plane looks like a toy, mon ami. Monnett Moni designed by John Monnett
- Around the world in 67 hours - This plane broke the record for fastest nonstop flight around the world and the longest aircraft flight distance. Virgin Global Flyer
- The precursor to a USMC VTOL Air craft, developed by NASA & U.S. Army. Bell XV-15 Tilt Rotor
- It's a plane, no wait it's a car.... (If JeTSI employees had one of these they wouldn't have to worry about flights and car rentals anymore!) Fulton FA-3-101 Airphibian
- Looks like a skateboard ramp in the sky, this experimental aircraft needs the Sun. Pathfinder Plus
- Downed more planes in the Pacific than any other warplane – it was greased lightning! Lockheed P-38 Lightning