

JeTSI September National Preparedness Month

September 1, 2015

Herndon, VA – September is National Preparedness Month. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) are encouraging all of us to be knowledgeable, aware, and ready to take action in the event of an emergency. Are you ready?

Educate:

Learn about the potential risks - <http://community.fema.gov/take-action/hazards>

Learn how to be ready - <http://www.ready.gov/>

Stay Informed:

The latest weather maps - <http://www.weather.gov/>

Up to date weather news - <http://www.nws.noaa.gov/com/weatherreadynation/>

Have wireless emergency alerts sent to your phone - <http://www.ready.gov/alerts>

Take Action:

Create a Family Emergency Plan - <http://www.ready.gov/make-a-plan>

Prepare a Disaster Recovery Kit - <http://www.ready.gov/build-a-kit>

Obtain a NOAA Weather Radio - <http://www.nws.noaa.gov/nwr/>

Be an Example:

Share Your Story - <http://community.fema.gov/>

Teach Your Kids - <http://www.weather.gov/owlie/>

Participate in NOAA's Weather in Focus Photo contest - <http://www.weather.gov/photocontest/>

We at JeTSI are using this month to make sure our Business Emergency Preparedness Plan is in place, and that our employees are well informed to create their own Family Emergency Plan and Recovery Kit. We hope you are doing the same!
